Art & Fashion

100 Revolutionary War Soldiers, Set of Four Prints

Done in the style of Frederick Elmiger, this handsome set of prints includes two dashing Colonial soldiers and two dapper British soldiers. Hang them together or separately, depending on how well they get along when you get home. Four 6" x 12" decoupage-on-wood framed prints.

Value: $ 100 Donor(s): American Horticultural Society

101 Tiger's Eye Necklace

From a distance, this is a subtle piece of jewelry - done in neutral tones of tiger's eye and smoked quartz. Up close, however, the graduated beads have just the right amount of sheen to catch the light and the matinee length strands fall at just the right place. Dress it up or dress it down - this item will compliment many outfits in your closet.

Value: $ 126 Donor(s): Richard Carroll

102 "Yellow Tulip on Hot Pink Ground," Matthew Johnston

Local Alexandria artist Matthew Johnston has made a name for himself with these bold and colorful depictions of tulips. His work hangs in the US Airways 1st Class lounge at Reagan National Airport, Restaurant Eve, and several U.S. State Department offices overseas, among other noteworthy places. Join that illustrious community with this fun and modern tulip. Original 6" x 40" painting on mat board with a graphite frame. (Signed by the artist.)

Value: $ 250 Donor(s): NCA Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc.

103 Limited Edition Fine Art Print

With 38 years of professional art photography experience, Thomas Fallon has learned that photos must tell a story. As a result, each of his hand-crafted photographs is a compositional narrative brimming with character, design, texture, and color in a symbiotic harmony that is elegant and yet illustrative. Select a limited-edition 12" art print by Thomas Fallon that speaks to you or apply the full value of the limited edition print to a larger print.

Value: $ 500 Donor(s): Sea Glass Fine Art

104 Jade Jasper Fish Brooch

Do you lose hours watching the lithe grace of the residents of your koi pond? Are you taken with the translucent beauty of jade? Then this gorgeous carved jade Jasper Fish Brooch is the perfect accessory for nights out or just to smarten up your jacket. Approx. 2", mounted in 14k yellow gold.

Value: $ 895 Donor(s): King's Jewelry

105 “Maman et Moi” Oil Painting

Gorgeous oil painting of a mother and child. Includes a certificate of authenticity guaranteeing that the item is “hand-painted entirely with oil with no mechanical means of reproduction utilized.” This is a fantastic statement piece that will really set a familial, nurturing tone for your living or dining room.

Value: $ 1,200 Donor(s): Tradition de France

106 “Winter’s Secret – Great Gray Owl,” Thomas D. Mangelsen

Look closely. There he is! “As one of the world’s largest owls, a Great Gray settles onto his perch among the willowy branches of an aspen tree. During the winter of 2004-2005, Minnesota experienced an historic invasion of more than 2000 great grays, unprecedented in any of our United States.” Award winning photographer, Thomas D. Mangelsen, captured this amazing owl image in Northern Minnesota. 40” x 55”, professionally finished with museum quality materials. (Signed by the photographer, 592/2500 in the series.)

Value: $ 4,600 Donor(s): Holly Nolting

107 “Cottonwood Hollow – Great Horned Owls,” Thomas D. Mangelsen

Photographing in Grand Teton National Park, Wyoming, renowned artist and conservationist, Thomas D. Mangelsen, recalls, “[i]n the fading light... the mother flew in and landed above the hollow blending in perfectly with the trunk of the tree. Framed by the cottonwood's leaves, she and one of the owlets looked directly at the camera while the shy one looked away. It was the moment I had been waiting for!” This large and gorgeous print is the one you’ve been waiting for! 40” x 55”, professionally finished with museum quality materials. (Signed by the photographer, 527/950 in the series.)

200 The Foodscape Revolution, by Brie Arthur

Foodscaping visionary, and AHS Great American Gardener Emerging Horticulturist Award Winner for 2017, Brie Arthur looks at under-utilized garden spaces around homes or in the landscaped common spaces of planned communities – and she sees places where food can be grown...interplanted with non-food ornamental plants for year-round beauty. In this entertaining and informative book, you'll learn how to begin an enriched gardening lifestyle that is beneficial, sustainable and empowering. Complete with full-color photos, design plans, simple projects and bountiful tips. Autographed by the author.

Priceless Donor(s):

201 Rosemary Verey: The Life & Lessons of a Legendary Gardener, Barbara Paul Robinson

Rosemary Verey was the last of the great English garden legends. Although she embraced gardening late in life, she quickly achieved international renown. She was the acknowledged apostle of the "English style," the "must have" adviser to the rich and famous, including Prince Charles and Elton John, and a beloved and wildly popular lecturer in America. A natural teacher, Verey encouraged her American fans to believe that they were fully capable of creating beautiful gardens and re-introduced the English to their own gardening traditions. She developed a language of classical formal design, embellished with her exuberant planting style. A demanding taskmaster, and a relentless perfectionist, Rosemary Verey, in her life as in her work, was the very personification of the English garden style. Autographed by the author.

202 Floral Diplomacy at the White House, by Laura Dowling

Our very own Board Member, Laura Dowling, served as Chief Floral Designer at the White House from 2009 until 2015. In this unique position, she managed décor and flowers for thousands of White House events while using flowers as a strategic tool for communicating diplomatic, symbolic and political messages. She is renowned for creating a new romantic style of flower arranging featuring free-flowing lines of vines and flowers emanating from a classical bouquet. Here, she describes her inspiration, provides tips and techniques on flower arranging and entertaining, and offers readers a fascinating behind-the-scenes glimpse into both official and private White House life. Autographed by the author.

Priceless Donor(s): Laura Dowling

203 A White House Christmas, Including Floral Design Tutorials, by Laura Dowling

In her second book, Laura gives readers a back stage pass to the complex year-long planning process of creating some of the most innovative and ambitious handmade holiday displays. From architectural details to sugar paste floral vases and robotic versions of the First Family dogs, her décor inspired and delighted visitors and guests from all around the world. In addition to her White House experiences, Laura shares advice and ideas, amusing anecdotes, tips and techniques for planning holiday displays, including step-by-step instructions for recreating some of the most popular and original White House holidays designs at home. Autographed by the author.

409 Mt. Diablo Landscaping - 5 Man Hours

Do you have a large lawn, extensive flower beds, or a long driveway? Do you long for the good old days when neighborhood kids looking to earn some money would mow that lawn, mulch those beds, or shovel that driveway? Mt. Diablo will provide five hours towards your landscaping or snow removal needs. Corporate mascot Bo the chihuahua does ride along on most jobs for quality control.

Value: $ 250 Donor(s): Mt. Diablo Landscaping

410 Rare Potted Clivia Debutante

Be the envy of all your garden club friends as the owner of the elusive and award-winning 'Longwood Debutante' yellow clivia. The lightly scented blossoms are a soft, buttery yellow shade (a result of 35 years of plant wizardry,) making an already attractive and durable plant an absolute knockout. White Flower Farm has donated a mature plant, approximately 24" tall. Clivias, like all of us, require very little care and grow more impressive with age.

Value: $ 300 Donor(s): White Flower Farm

609 Pagoda-style Cocobolo Box

In 1670, Louis XIV had the Trianon de Porcelaine erected at Versailles. This small structure ignited a trend for Asian-inspired décor. This unique little box adds just the right amount of chinoiserie chic to your bookshelf or dressing table. Made from Cocobolo wood, it is the perfect size to hold small and precious keepsakes.

Value: $ 150 Donor(s): Tom Huber

610 Mulberry Box with Tall Finial

Made of mulberry wood, this lidded box is perfect for small jewelry. Remove rings and place them on the finial for safe keeping. Though we are partial to the osage tree here at River Farm, the mulberry is a close relative and its wood is similar in look, but harder in density. While turning, mulberry shows an orange color that darkens to a rich, medium brown when aged.

Value: $ 150 Donor(s): Tom Huber

611 Set of 2 Maple-Walnut Plates

These coordinating mixed-wood plates have a modern and contemporary style within a traditional medium. You'll love showing them off to your guests.

Value: $ 200 Donor(s): Tom Huber

612 Cherry Burl Natural-Edge Bowl

This unique piece is a juxtaposition of textures - the finished portions are smooth as silk and contrast sharply with the raw wood edge. This handsome cherry bowl brings the beauty of the outdoors to your table and would look right at home in a variety of settings - a rustic log cabin, a boho bungalow, or an industrial modern loft.

Value: $ 200 Donor(s): Patrick O'Brien

613 3-Sided Winged Poplar Box with Maple Lid

A delicately crafted example of local artisan Tom Huber's turning, you will not find another small piece like this one. We envision using this as a desk accessory (with receptacle for paper clips or stamps and a high-brow fidget spinner finial top for those long conference calls) or as the piece de resistance on your coffee or console table.

Value: $ 200 Donor(s): Tom Huber

614 6" River Farm Walnut Bowl in a Spiral Motif

Savor the evening with us here at our riverfront Eden and take home a piece of River Farm at the end of the night. Dan will get angry if you take illicit cuttings so here is a better way. This stunning and solid hand-turned bowl is an earth-friendly reuse of a River Farm walnut tree.

Value: $ 250 Donor(s): Tom Huber

615 Spalted Hackberry Bowl from Montpelier

Spalting, for those of you outside the wood-turning world, refers to dark veins that can appear in the beginning of the decay process, creating beautiful marbled patterns. Simple in design, but unique in its coloring, the hackberry wood was collected from the grounds of Montpelier, the central Virginia home of James and Dolly Madison.

Value: $ 200 Donor(s): Tom Huber

616 13" Maple Centerpiece Bowl

The wood in this large, uniquely-shaped bowl really tells its own story. If you can bear to cover up the rings, it would look excellent holding an assortment of fruit.

Value: $ 250 Donor(s):

617 14" Bubinga Platter

An immensely popular imported African hardwood, Bubinga may be loved as much for its quirky name as it is for its strength and beauty.

Bubinga has a close resemblance to rosewood. Yet Bubinga also features a host of stunning grain figures, such as flamed, pommele, and waterfall, which make this wood truly unique. Display this platter or use it, you will get envious results either way.

Value: $ 250 Donor(s): Joe Zadareky

618 "Celestial Clouds #1," Tom Huber

This one-of-a-kind, hand-painted, and hand-turned maple wood bowl will make a stunning art piece in your home. Evoking celestial clouds, the rim uses jewel tones jade, sapphire, and amethyst to complement the light maple wood.

Value: $ 250 Donor(s): Tom Huber

619 Spiral Sycamore Vase

A full five years in the making, this vase exemplifies the hard work and dedication which goes into the art and craft of wood-turning. Though not suitable for cut flowers, this vase would look stunning filled with silk or dried stems, a Pottery Barn-esque bronze palm frond, or fanciful peacock feathers.

Value: $ 250 Donor(s): Tom Huber

620 Wooden Inlay Serving Bowl

A gorgeous and sophisticated piece, this two-toned, hand-made bowl will have your guests clamoring for more.

Value: $ 500 Donor(s): Tom Huber, Robert Kinsel
