Reciprocal Admissions Program

How to Order RAP Guides

The American Horticultural Society's (AHS) Reciprocal Admissions Program (RAP) promotes horticulture across North America, encouraging people to visit gardens and other horticultural institutions. Launched in 1990, this program currently comprises a network of over 300 horticultural institutions in 48 states, plus Canada, the Cayman Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Ordering RAP Guides

RAP Guides are available for order online at <https://ahs.orderit247.com/login>. Discounts are available for bulk orders.

You can also access the online ordering page from the AHS RAP website www.ahsgardening.org/rap by clicking "Read More" under the heading "Order a Guide".

How to log in

If this is your first time ordering, you will have the opportunity to create a new username and password by clicking "Create an account". If you have previously placed an order and forgotten your password, click "Reset password" and enter your email address to have a new password sent to you.

Please note that the RAP Guide ordering page is separate from the main AHS website, and that you will need to create a different username and password from your www.ahsgardening.org credentials if it's your first time ordering RAP Guides online.

Payment

The quickest way to receive your RAP Guide(s) is to pay online with a credit card. After processing payment, your order will be shipped within two business days. If you prefer to pay by check, your order will not be shipped until the check has been received and processed by AHS. This will delay your order. Please make checks payable to AHS and mail to:
