

Hannah Fuller
Sr. Manager of Convention Services

Hometown: Turtletown, TN (Yes, it's a real place!)

Favorite time of year in Knoxville: Spring! I love when the dogwoods bloom and the outdoor festivals start coming back.

Favorite Knoxville Restaurant: Kefi

Favorite Weekend Activity in Knoxville: Going paddling on all of Knoxville's waterways or checking out a new restaurant downtown.

Favorite Knoxville Event/Festival: Festival on the 4th

A VISITOR'S ULTIMATE CHECKLIST:

- Head to Pretentious Glass & Beer Co. where you can enjoy a hand-crafted beer in a hand-crafted glass and watch both created on site
- Hike, bike, climb, paddle, or just wander in the woods – all within the heart of the city, in Knoxville's Urban Wilderness
- Snap a picture in front of the iconic Tennessee Theatre marquee
- See the world's largest basketball at the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame
- Take in a 360° view of Knoxville from the Sunsphere, one of two remaining structures from the 1982 World's Fair
- Have a spirited bowling experience at Maple Hall
- Experience Richard Jolley's Cycle of Life, one of the largest figurative glass-and-steel assemblages in the world at Knoxville Museum of Art
- Step back in time at Mast General Store
- Cool off with a sweet treat at Cruze Farm's downtown ice cream shop
- Take your furry friend on a play date at the downtown PetSafe® Dog Park, then grab a treat at CitiFid-O on Union Avenue
- Let Pete and his crew feed you the most delicious diner breakfast at Pete's Restaurant
- Cool down with the Cold Blooded at the all-new Amphibian Reptile Conservation Campus at Zoo Knoxville
- Hop between Knoxville's breweries for a behind-the-scenes experience with Knox Brew Tours
- Get a hands-on STEM experience full of fun and fascination at MUSE Knoxville
- Enjoy a guided paddle (day or night) with Knoxville Adventure Collective
- Savor the Taste of Tennessee with Calhoun's Bar-B-Que
- Visit the 'Nicest Place in America,' Yassin's Falafel House, as voted by 2018's Reader's Digest Poll
- Stop by the Knoxville Visitors Center for free live music during the WDVX Blue Plate Special
- Head over to Boyd's Jig and Reel where you can select from 950 different whiskies
- Catch the sunset and a cocktail at Five Thirty Lounge atop the Hyatt Place on Gay Street
- Grab lunch at Marble City Market where you can choose from 11 different local food vendors and enjoy Top Golf simulators
- Pick up local produce and more at the Market Square Farmers' Market
- Stop by UT Knoxville's campus to see the Torchbearer, Neyland Stadium and the Pat Summitt statue
- Take a stroll through time at the at the East Tennessee History Center to experience the "You Should've Been There! 1982 World's Fair" exhibit

CONTACT: 865.342.9166 • hfuller@knoxville.org